18th February 2022 Newsletter

Dear Parents/Carers

Happy Half Term Friday! It is looking quite white around school and I hope that there is still some left for the children to enjoy tomorrow.

We hope that you enjoy the rest that half term brings and we look forward to seeing what you all get up to on Tapestry!

Illness

Please see the guidance below for general illness. Please note that it is 48 from the last episode for diarrhoea and vomiting. Please adhere to the guidance as we won't to minimise the spread of illness.

Thank you for your continued support.

Lateness

Please note that registers close promptly at 8.50am and if your child arrives after then they receive a late mark. After half term, we will be texting parents to let them know if children have been marked in late on that particular day. Thank you!

Attendance-Automated attendance data trial

Please note that we have signed up to a new DFE data trial and we have a privacy notice to accompany this which can be found by clicking on the link below
